

HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE DISPOSAL

STOP PROGRAM

(Stop Throwing Out Pollutants)

Our HHW program is partially financed with a grant from the NYS Department of Environmental Conservation. Please see the schedule below for the dates at a Recycling center nearest you.

COLLECTION DAY SCHEDULE

9AM to 2PM ONLY

Hampton Bays - 728-5078

Jackson Avenue

April 5, 2014

&

August 23, 2014

North Sea - 283-5210

1370 Major's Path

May 18, 2014

&

October 25, 2014

Sag Harbor - 725-3097

Bridgehampton Turnpike

July 19, 2014

Westhampton - 288-5236

66 Old Country Road

June 21, 2014

Disposal at other times is regulated by state and federal environmental law and is strictly prohibited. For more information regarding the Town of Southampton's Stop Throwing Out Pollutants (STOP) program, please call the Town Recycling Office at (631) 283-5210.

ACCEPTABLE MATERIALS

Automotive Products

- A/C refrigerants
- antifreeze
- auto body putty
- automobile batteries
- brake fluid
- carburetor cleaners
- gasoline
- oil additives
- starter fluid
- transmission fluid
- used motor oil mixed with solvents & cleaners

Lawn & Garden Prod.

- fungicides
- herbicides
- insecticides
- pesticides
- rodenticides

Household Products

- adhesives
- bathroom cleaners
- carpet cleaners
- disinfectants
- drain cleaners
- driveway sealers
- dry cleaning fluids
- fluorescent bulbs
- furniture polish
- lead base paints
- mothballs
- oil base paints
- oven cleaners
- paint strippers
- room deodorizers
- silver polish
- spot removers
- stains and varnishes
- toilet bowl cleaners
- turpentine and thinners

Other Products

- aerosol cans (containing household hazardous waste residue)
- arts and crafts supplies
- asbestos (wet it down and pack in three plastic bags)
- batteries: button-type (watches, hearing aids), nickel/cadmium (cell phones)
- kerosene
- lighter fluid
- mercury (liquid)
- mercury switches
- mercury vapor lights
- photographic chemicals
- rechargeable batteries
- solder
- swimming pool chemicals